The stunning Pamela Morgan is synonymous with class, elegance and flirts with flavors everywhere. She is a chef, cookbook author, influencer and cabaret star, and more than just a public figure in the cooking world. She was a pioneer in the trendy world of cooking and catering when she opened her store back in the 90's. She is currently active doing events around the country and creating her own cabaret show. She works with different charities in New York and Bridgehampton and travels abroad often in search for the perfect meal.
